Seminar Close & Refreshments

AWA North America Narrow Web Pouch Seminar 2022

The seminar will start on the evening of the 11th with an opening networking reception two special Key Note presentations. The full seminar program on the 12th will feature presentations and panel discussions from experts and networking opportunities across the value chain - from resin and material suppliers to equipment manufacturers, converters, and brand owners, including packaging designers, sustainability and recycling experts, and contract manufacturers. While presentations and panels will cover market outlook, sustainability, and innovation, we have planned extended networking sessions over two days. To ensure you can meet the right people in the industry and to provide you with a stress-free experience, we have arranged for you the best rates at Hyatt Hotel! We look forward to welcoming you to Chicago on September 11&12 and for any additional detail, contact us at any time.
